FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

“Do I need to know someone to apply to UNOPS?”

No, our process is open to everyone. You do not need to have acquaintances to be informed of our vacancies. All our vacancy announcements are published on our Career Portal.

“Do I need to have a working permit for the duty station before applying for international contract position?”

No, UNOPS does not require you to have a work permit for the duty station when you apply. Once you join the organization, UNOPS will assist you with all required processes.

“Is UN experience always required?”

UNOPS highly values professional experience from both public and private sector! Having previous UN experience is often considered as “desired” or “an asset”, but not a strict requirement.

“The process to be contacted after applying can take months or years.”

The time it takes to be contacted after submitting your application depends on the type of opportunity. If you have applied for a vacancy , the process can take approximately two to three months. If you have applied to a roster, there is no specific time-frame that you will be contacted within for an actual position as this is a proactive process for future vacancies.

“If I am applying to a high-level position, is it enough to create a short profile or just upload my curriculum?”

No, it is important that you fill-in all required fields on the online application with concrete and relevant information, irrespective of level.

“How do I know the status of my application?”

You can monitor the status of your applications by logging onto your account. You will be automatically notified once the recruitment process is finalized.

“How can I prepare for my interview?”

UNOPS conducts competency based interviews to ensure that the best qualified people join the organization. Here are some tips on how to prepare for it. We also advise you to develop a thorough understanding of UNOPS core activities and our projects and prepare an answer on your motivation to join the organization.
