

UNOPS Lives on the Line campaign: engage.unops.org

Suggested social media posts

Twitter

As violence in #Iraq grows, calls from #displaced Iraqis pour into @UNOPS partner-supported call centre <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX> #LivesOnTheLine

Several @UN agencies + 1 small call centre 50 miles from Mosul = vital info for #IDPs <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX> #Iraq #LivesOnTheLine @UNOPS

A phone rings & the tragic reality of mass displacement is clear. @UNOPS partners help w simple idea <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX> #LivesOnTheLine

On a dusty road 50 miles from Mosul @UNOPS + @UN partners join hands & connect people w/ services that help! <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX> #Iraq

A small call centre responds to ↑ #humanitarian crisis. Support this vital @UNOPS @UN work in #Iraq <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX> #LivesOnTheLine

Facebook

Several members of the United Nations family joined hands to turn a simple idea into reality. Now thousands of #IDPs in #Iraq are connected to vital information. As the situation on the ground deteriorates and the calls pour in, you can support the cause: <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX> #LivesOnTheLine

As conflict tears through towns and cities in northern Iraq, a small call centre located 50 miles from Mosul, is providing displaced families with a vital point of connection to aid, food, shelter, services and other information. Operated by UNOPS, in partnership with UNHCR, WHO, WFP, UN-OCHA and the UN Humanitarian and Resident Coordinator for Iraq, the Call Centre connects hundreds of thousands of Iraqis with the information they need. With the number of calls for help expected to rise, you can show your support for this vital service by donating here: <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX> #LivesOnTheLine

Instagram

As conflict tears through towns and cities in northern Iraq, a small call centre operates out of a container 50km from Mosul, providing displaced families with vital information about aid, food, shelter ... For information on how you can support this project, visit engage.unops.org. #LivesOnTheLine

When a mother forced from her home needs to find medicine for a sick child, where can she turn to for information? In Erbil, the Iraq IDP Information Centre connects people in need to services that can help. For information on how you can support this project, visit engage.unops.org to help. #LivesOnTheLine

Millions of Iraqis displaced by conflict continue to face insurmountable challenges. The Iraq IDP Information Centre in Erbil guides them to the help they need. For information on how you can support this project, visit engage.unops.org to help. #LivesOnTheLine

LinkedIn

One of the largest UN inter-agency projects of its kind, the Iraq Internally Displaced Persons Information Centre provides information that can connect people to life-saving information. Support this worthy cause: <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX>

As conflict tears through towns and cities in northern Iraq, a small call centre located 50 miles from Mosul, is providing displaced families with a vital point of connection to aid, food, shelter, services and other information. Operated by UNOPS, in partnership with UNHCR, WHO, WFP, UN-OCHA and the UN Humanitarian and Resident Coordinator for Iraq, the Call Centre connects hundreds of thousands of Iraqis with the information they need. With the number of calls for help expected to rise, you can show your support for this vital service by donating here: <http://bit.ly/2er3hnX> #LivesOnTheLine