 - d. Partners. A breakdown of UNOPS main partners, including the share they make up of UNOPS portfolio, may be listed.
 - e. Project Data, in a format according to the open data standard established by the International Aid Transparency Initiative (IATI), including a list of all the projects implemented by UNOPS, the project name, funding source, partner(s), country of implementation, the total project budget and the amount dispersed may also be displayed.
 - f. UNOPS Executive Board's documentation provided for Executive Board meetings, as well as all deliberations and decisions of the Board.

- g. UNOPS Executive Office's Annual Report to the Executive Board, as well as all public statements and speeches by the Executive Director and senior management.
- h. UNOPS Executive Director Principles and relevant Directives and Instructions that govern the way UNOPS organizes itself and operates.
- i. Selected UNOPS Financial Information, including relevant documentation on UNOPS budgets as approved by the Executive Board, financial report and audited financial statements, the annual review of the financial situation and the annual report of UNOPS Internal Audit and Investigations Group (IAIG).
- j. External audit reports regarding UNOPS, prepared by the UN Board of Auditors and the Joint Inspection Unit.
- k. Internal audit reports, prepared by IAIG.
- l. UNOPS Procurement solicitation notices in accordance with OI.PG.2017.01: Procurement Procedures, all awarded contracts irrespective of value (although in a limited number of cases some information may be withheld if disclosure is likely to endanger the safety or security of any individual or vendor, violate his or her rights, or invade his or her privacy).
- m. UNOPS Personnel breakdown, reflecting gender, origin, position, as well as a listing of senior management positions with official contact details.
- n. Other information which in the view of the Executive Director, the Deputy Executive Director, or the Head of Communications, Communications Group (CG), in consultation with the General Counsel, shall be disclosed.

3. Information that may not be disclosed

- 3.1. While UNOPS is committed to have an open and transparent disclosure system in place, there are legal, operational and practical considerations that are necessary to preserve the organization's interests, as well as those of its personnel and its various partners.
- 3.2. Information that may not be disclosed includes:
 - a. Information received from or sent to third parties under an expectation of confidentiality;
 - b. Information which disclosure would likely endanger the safety or security of any individual, violate his or her rights, or breach his or her privacy;
 - c. Information which disclosure would likely endanger the security of Member States or prejudice the security or proper conduct of any operation or activity of UNOPS;
 - d. Information, covered by legal privilege or disclosure of which might prejudice any internal, governmental, or legal investigation;
 - e. Information provided in confidence to the Ethics Officer;
 - f. Internal investigations reports;
 - g. information which disclosure would likely compromise the integrity of UNOPS deliberative and decision-making process by inhibiting the candid exchange of ideas and communications, including internal documents, memoranda or e-mails, and other similar communications to or from UNOPS management, UNOPS personnel, and UNOPS contractors.

- h. Information exchanged, prepared for, or derived from the deliberative and decision-making process between UNOPS, its partners, and/or other entities with which UNOPS cooperates that, if disclosed, would or would be likely to compromise the integrity of the deliberative and decision-making process between and among UNOPS, its partners, and/or other entities with which UNOPS cooperates by inhibiting the candid exchange of ideas and communications.
- i. Drafts of all correspondence, reports, documents, agreements, contracts, emails, or any other forms of communication;
- j. Commercial information which disclosure would likely harm either the financial interests of UNOPS or those of other parties involved;
- k. Information which disclosure would likely undermine the dialogue between UNOPS, Member States and/or partners;
- l. Information requests which are not reasonable, excessive or overly burdensome or which are made with an abusive or vexatious purpose or by a vexatious or querulous entity.
- m. information which the harm in disclosing the information would in the view of UNOPS outweigh the public interest

4. Request for Information by Third Parties

- 4.1. Third parties may submit requests for information not already made publicly available by submitting their request to the Head of Communications, CG by email at communications@unops.org. The Head of Communications, CG, shall acknowledge the receipt of the request and shall endeavour to respond to such request in writing, in consultation with the General Counsel, LG, within 30 days. In case a request is denied, the response of Head of Communications, CG, shall provide the reasons for such denial.
- 4.2. Whenever a request has been denied for reasons that appear to be inconsistent with the spirit of this OI, the requester may challenge the decision of the Head of Communications, CG, by submitting his/her challenge to UNOPS Information Disclosure Oversight Panel (IDOP) by email at communications@unops.org, noting it is for the attention of the IDOP.
- 4.3. . The IDOP shall acknowledge receipt of the challenge and shall endeavour to provide its response within 60 calendar days of receipt of the request. In case a request is denied, the response of the IDOP shall provide the reasons for such denial.
